

Greetings,

We are writing to inform you of an opportunity for a unique professional experience this summer working with gifted and talented students. Johns Hopkins University's Center for Talented Youth (CTY) is seeking candidates for instructor and teaching assistant positions for our 2008 summer residential programs. CTY Summer Programs provide intensive course work in the liberal arts to talented pre-collegiate students ages 8 to 16. As science instructors or TAs you will have the opportunity to gain experience teaching physics, astronomy, or an engineering course over the summer. Our current position openings are listed below. To apply, visit our website at:

<http://www.cty.jhu.edu/summer/employment>

Details of our positions and courses are below. Also, if you could forward this employment opportunity to any undergraduates, graduates and professors that you think might be interested, it would be greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch with us by email at ctysummer@jhu.edu or by calling 410-735-6185.

Sincerely,

Johns Hopkins University Center for Talented Youth
